

Can Robinson help us grow?

La lettura del celebre capolavoro di Daniel Defoe, "Robinson Crusoe", è stata il punto di partenza di questo progetto didattico, nato con l'obiettivo di potenziare le competenze chiave degli studenti attraverso l'uso di strumenti digitali, lo sviluppo della creatività e lo spirito di iniziativa. L'isolamento di Robinson lo costringe a esaminare la propria identità e i propri bisogni, intraprendendo un profondo viaggio spirituale che lo porta dalla ribellione al pentimento. Proprio come il protagonista, i nostri studenti sono stati guidati in un percorso di riflessione sulla propria identità, esplorando temi universali e quotidiani come l'amicizia e la solitudine, i rapporti con i genitori e la gestione delle difficoltà. Dal punto di vista strettamente didattico, il lavoro si è articolato in due fasi principali: la comprensione del testo con la lettura di una versione semplificata dell'opera (livello A2) e la scrittura creativa. Gli alunni si sono chiesti "Can Robinson help us grow?"
